Sixth Anniversary of the Opening of Our New Building. Monday Next Set Aside as a Special Bargain Day.

Six years ago today an elaborate reception to the members of the trade marked the opening of our spacious new warerooms; the Monday following the building was thrown open to the public, and that day proved a record-breaker for sales of every description. "We Know What Belongs to a Watch."

(Shakespeare's "Much Ado About Nothing.") Without wishing to be egotistical we can echo this sentiment of Shakespeare. We know what belongs to a Watch. The Dueber-Hampden Watch Works, Canton, Ohio, is the only factory in the world where a complete watch (case and movement) is MADE AND WAR-BANTED.

"If they're Rich's shoes they're proper."

(Entire building), Ten-one F-Cort 10th.

Yesterday we closed the biggest week since the establishment of the Rich shoe store. The growth of this business is most encouraging. From a most humble beginning it has increased to wondrous proportions. It is all the more of a satisfaction - this growth - because of the prophecies when we opened across the way of many shoe merchants of our immediate collapse.

And when we began to show novelty footwear in complete assortments then they vehemently declared that our failure was certain.

While not craving the credit, it is a fact that because of this store's progressiveness it is no longer necessary for particular people and those who follow fashion closely to send to New York for the correct fashions in footwear -for the distinctive and exclusive styles which have been approved by fashion setters.

Their showing here has been simultaneous with their showing in the leading shops of the metropolis. And our varieties have been equally comprehensive.

This not only applies to street footwear, but to evening, wedding, reception, carriage, shooting, hunting, riding, golfing and fencing footwear, which at all times are shown here in a most complete assortment.

Particular attention is called to the splendid showing of footwear for weddings-and for the entire trousseaux.

Also to the stock of golfing footwear, for which the demand is so extensive just
